THE INDIVIDUALS

- 1 My name is Cynthia Nataquq. I am 14 years old. I am an Inuit woman living in Kuujuaq, Nunavik, Quebec. I am Christian. My adoptive mother is Jasmine Langois-Giroux, whose great grandparents came from France in the 1880s and settled in Quebec. Jasmine is gay and an atheist.
- 2 My name is Jean-Pierre Kidiaba and I am from the Democratic Republic of the Congo. I study Civil Engineering at The University of Winnipeg. One of my roommates is John Martin, a Metis man, and the other is Dan, who grew up in Montreal. Dan's grandmother was a Jewish immigrant from Cape Town in South Africa and his grandfather was a Jewish immigrant from Siedlce, Poland.
- 3 I am Calum MacFarlene. I live in Vancouver, British Columbia. In 1988, I married Lori-Ann, who is from Seattle. We have three children. Our youngest daughter is a grade 5/6 teacher; she has recently married Abdullah, a young Muslim man from Saudi Arabia, whom she met while at university.
- 4 My name is Jennifer Roethlisberger and I am from Argentina. I have been living in Toronto since 1999. I speak Spanish and German because my ancestors were from Switzerland. My best friends here are Paolo Martinez from the Philippines, and Rose Ng, from Hong Kong; I met them at our local church.
