Think Like a Historian: The Liberation of the Netherlands

The Think Like a Historian project is a series of videos and accompanying learning tools designed to help educators and students analyze and interpret primary sources. This edition of the series focuses on Canadian experiences in the aftermath of the liberation of the Netherlands.

Historica Canada has created these resources to help educators and students think critically about primary sources as they learn about this period in Canadian history. The resource consists of an education guide (download the PDF below) with activities to accompany the Think Like a Historian: The Liberation of the Netherlands video series (embedded below, or available on YouTube). You can also view the guide and worksheets online in flipping book format at https://fb.historicacanada.ca/education/english/liberation-netherlands/.
